1. [redacted] at the airfield in Kumaritsa (N 42-48, E 23-20), [redacted] the construction of the airfield was classified "top secret". Construction began in 1952 and was to be completed by May 1954. Members of the Labor Troops Brigade (Trudova Brigada) were used to lay the concrete runways which were still under construction in 1953. This airfield was located within a two to three kilometer radius of Kumaritsa.

2. In February or March 1954, [redacted]

a
